

BALLOT PROPOSITION #100
Temporary Sales Tax; Repeal

Publicity Pamphlet Fiscal Impact Summary

State law requires the Joint Legislative Budget Committee (JLBC) Staff to prepare a summary of the fiscal impact of Proposition 100. Beginning June 1, 2010, Proposition 100 would amend the Arizona Constitution to temporarily increase the state transaction privilege and use taxes (“state sales tax”) by one cent per one dollar for three years.

Proposition 100 is projected to increase state sales tax revenues by $918 million in the first year. The proposition is projected to increase state sales tax revenues by $968 million in the second year and $1.06 billion in the third year.
