Budget Request
(1) Fund state voter registration database (Access Voter Information Database, or "AVID") annual maintenance costs from the General Fund rather than current funding sources of Federal Help America Vote Act (HAVA) monies. Item would fund 100% of annual AVID costs, rather than current 50/50 state/county cost sharing policy.	1,300,000	0
(2) Increase funding for the Election Services line item from $4 million to $8 million to fund increased costs for the traditional spending from this line item and to fund additional customer service staff, a temporary election worker program, a statewide early voting tracking-verification service, and logic and accuracy testing.	4,000,000	0
(3) Add 4.0 FTE to support elections, legal services, and public records request expenses.	375,500
(4) Change statute to redirect $5 from every trademark, trade name, and partnership filing to the non-appropriated Data Processing Administration Fund. These revenues currently go to the General Fund. Estimate this would provide $200,000 to the fund each year. Initial deposits would be used for $350,000 to develop an online records-data management platform (currently use old internal databases) compatible with Business One-Stop. Deposits would then fund annual cost of $150,000 to run the new platform.	0	0
(5) Change statute to divert $6 from the $25 collected for the Notary Public application fee to the non-appropriated Notary Bond Fund. This $6 of revenues currently goes to the General Fund. Add 2 FTE to enhance notary commissioning, training and monitoring processes, address complaints, and reduce deed fraud. Estimate annual revenue diversion of $175,400.	0	0
(6) Modernize IT infrastructure. Add 2 FTE.	835,700	0
(7) Additional funding for Electronic Records Repository, including 2 FTE. SOS currently has $70k GF in budget to establish repository as required by Laws 2019, Chapter 275.	475,400	0
(8) Additional support for the Arizona Talking Book Library for increased operational costs. Enacted budget included $162,000 of FY 25 funding, request would increase to $186,000.	26,000	0
(9) Update security equipment at Polly Rosenbaum Archives building	97,000	0
(10) Deposit to Records Services Fund to support online training for agencies, additional staff, staff training to support records management duties.	55,000	0

	General Fund FY 25 Request	Other Fund FY 25 Request
(11) Backfill reduced federal Address Confidentiality Program funding (federal Victim of Crime Act, VOCA) funding.	400,000	0

(13) Personal security for the Secretary of State	250,000	0
(14) Conduct study for future Archival/Records facility requirements	100,000	0
(15) Add 1 FTE to support the application for and manage the compliance work (reports, audits, and other documentation) required for federal grants for the library/archives division, and elections division. The position would also provide administrative support for the preparation and submission of reports/management of data to support required state reporting.	93,900	0
 Total FY 25 Budget Request	 $ 8,308,500	 $ -

FY 24 Supplementals

(1) Pay for costs of legal conflict counsel from private attorneys. Amend current budget footnote prohibiting expenditures or indebtedness for outside counsel to provide an exception if a conflict of interest prevents the SOS from being represented by the Attorney General (AG).
